

Vice President for Academic Affairs

Marywood UNIVERSITY

Marywood University, a comprehensive Catholic institution of 3,500 students located in Scranton, Pennsylvania, is committed to the integration of liberal arts and professional studies in the context of ethical and religious values. Marywood is a welcoming and supportive community that encourages men and women of all backgrounds to shape their lives as leaders in service to others.

Marywood's programs are administered through four degree-granting Colleges (Liberal Arts & Sciences, Health & Human Services, Creative & Performing Arts, and Education & Human Development); the School of Architecture; and a variety of professional development opportunities for the adult student. Degrees are offered in over 60 undergraduate academic programs, 35 graduate programs, and two doctoral programs: Clinical Psychology and Human Development. Additional opportunities for undergraduates abound through double majors, honors and independent study programs, practicums, internships, and study abroad.

Marywood University seeks a strategic thinker who, with the president, will help lead Marywood to the next level of excellence. The successful candidate will have: an earned doctorate; successful experience at the senior administrative level (preferably as an academic vice president); a meaningful record of teaching, scholarship, and service to qualify as a full professor; an understanding of the critical issues in higher education; a commitment to the mission and values of a comprehensive, Catholic university; a demonstrated capacity for teamwork, collaboration, shared governance, and faculty mentoring; experience with IT for a dynamic institution; an understanding of the role of international education; and a commitment to building institutional diversity.

Review of applications will begin February 13th and continue until the position is filled. If you have any questions or would like to discuss the opportunity further, please contact Paul Doeg or Matthew Kilcoyne, Senior Consultants, R. H. Perry & Associates at Marywood@rhperry.com for more information.
